PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Long Life Cutting Aerated Concrete! Thick gauge blade offers extra robustness and stability. Aerated concrete blocks are one of the most common materials in modern housebuilding and construction. The ability to cut these large blocks to size quickly and accurately represents a huge efficiency gain for tradesmen - but aerated concrete is highly abrasive. The EXPERT Aerated Concrete deals with this problem thanks to its advanced design of carbide teeth. In the age before Carbide recip blades, the ease and convenience of cutting porous concrete blocks with a recip saw was unimaginable. Join the modern era with the Bosch EXPERT Aerated Concrete Reciprocating Saw Blade. Exceptional durability is built in with Bosch Carbide Technology.
