PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Long Life Cutting Holes in Brick and Particle Board! Individually ground teeth made from fine, hard Carbide. Cutting holes in brick, soft tiles and drywall is essential for plumbers and electricians on a building site or during renovation work. Few hole saws can withstand this kind of work in a mixture of tough construction materials, but the EXPERT Construction Material can. This one hole saw serves, and lasts, for many jobs. The Bosch EXPERT Construction Material Hole Saw is a robust hole saw that is very useful on the building site and offers great value to professionals because it is so long-lasting. Exceptional durability is built in with Bosch Carbide Technology.
