PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Long Life Cutting Stainless Steel Sheet! Carbide strip provides rigidity and strength. Cutting sheets of stainless steel is a daily task for metal workers, and also common when fitting kitchens and industrial or office buildings. Professionals who do this work need a blade that is reliable and keeps on going, to avoid the frustration of constantly changing blades. The Bosch EXPERT Stainless Steel Jigsaw Blade for Thin Material comes in two versions: the T118 AHM for very thin sheets has a very fine tooth pitch; the T118 EHM with medium-fine teeth is therefore the best buy for professionals cutting thin sheets of the highest strength steel or pipes with medium to thin walls. Exceptional durability is built in with Bosch Carbide Technology.
