This modern sporty helmet not only protects the wearer in their everyday activities, but also features a unique, innovative helmet structure. Taking inspiration from bionics (namely, the lily pad), a completely new helmet design has been brought to life. This design enables maximum performance and ergonomics while keeping material usage as low as possible. In addition to the innovative new helmet structure and ergonomically developed features, the uvex pronamic also offers a maximum level of safety. It meets both the requirements of necessa
